

Published by The Washington Herald

The WEEKLY REVIEW

September
4, 1921

A Survey, from Washington

IN THIS ISSUE—

Sir Philip Gibbs, loyal to the Empire which in 100 years developed India from a heterogeneous and medieval group of principalities into a compact and vastly productive commonwealth, maintains that British prestige is essentially undiminished in Hindustan.—Page 3.

W. S.
MAJOR